The Cotton Weaver's Café was formerly a weaving shed and operated in Walsden from 1860 to 1985. The mill (known as Bottoms Mill) produced low quality coarse sheeting such as dust sheets and cloths from low quality fibres left over from other weaving mills.

Gordon Rigg purchased the weaving mill in 2003 and converted it into the Bottoms Mill Shop which is located on the ground floor, and the Cotton Weaver's Café was opened on the first floor, it's name a tribute to what the mill once was. We hope you enjoy your visit.
